

Fill The Truck Campaign For McDowell County, West Virginia

Thanks to all who brought hygiene products to help our brothers and sisters in Christ. But why stop with hygiene products? Let's fill a truck full of Dry Goods for God's Grace Ministries of Welch, West Virginia. This ministry provides a food pantry and a clothing closet to the residents of McDowell County, West Virginia. McDowell County has a 33.8% poverty rate with a median household income of $22,682.

God's Grace Ministries is owned by Tony and Sandi Blankenship. It was formed in honor of their granddaughter, Addie. Sandi and Tony met Addie when she was five. She had been taken from her home when she was four. At that time, she was caring for a one-year-old and a two-year-old. The only food in the house was a can of ravioli, but no can opener. According to Sandi and Tony, this is a scene that is repeated throughout McDowell County, West Virginia.

Originally from West Virginia, Tony and Sandi lived in North Carolina until they felt God calling them back to West Virginia to minister to the needs of the residents of McDowell County. In addition, to running the food pantry, they provide mission opportunities for any group who feels God leading them to serve the residents of West Virginia.

We would like to help support God's Grace Ministries with other necessary items, such as non-perishable food, cleaning supplies, baby and adult diapers, as well as hygiene items. So, in order to make the trip worthwhile, let's fill a truck full of these goods for this ministry to distribute. The truck will be marked and parked under the carport on Saturday, April 24th from 1 to 4pm and in the same area again on Sunday, April 25th during morning worship. We will be leaving Sunday after service to deliver all collected items directly to God's Grace Ministries. So, come on everyone, let's join together to bless the needy in McDowell County. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Rhonda Cleary, Johan Krottnaurer or Betty Krottnaurer

A DISCUSSION ABOUT CELL PHONES AND SOCIAL MEDIA

Cornerstone: In The FLC
6:00 pm - 8:30

Jamie Burkett, a family ministry pastor in Greensboro, has been working with students for 20 years and will talk with parents about what kids can be exposed to through their cell phones and social media. He will engage this topic with biblical principles and have practical resources, tools, and information to help equip parents and guardians.

Dinner will be provided for kids and parents to eat together from 6-6:30. Then the youth (12-18) will participate in a fun activity lead by the youth leaders and children 11 and under will be having fun with the children ministry leaders.

Monthly Mission Moment Michael & Brenda Brent

Michael's ministry role matches his passion: to equip Christian "activists" who are committed to ministries of evangelism and discipleship with a growing knowledge of God's Word and a growing ability to faithfully handle God's word in ministry. The goal is to strengthen the biblical understanding of national laborers in Central and Eastern Europe, so that they might stay fresh in their walks with God and produce fruit for Him in ministry. Cornerstone supports Michael and his family in this vision through prayer and monthly giving.
